

THE NEW YORK SUN | WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 2008

On the Web at www.nysun.com/out-and-about

By Amanda Gordon

A Pre-Tony Celebration Of Broadway

JAMIE, NINA, ELIZABETH & ALEXANDER BERNSTEIN

LIONEL WARSHAUER, RACHEL POSNER, SAM WARSHAUER & CHRISTOPHER PENNINGTON

VARTAN GREGORIAN & FIONA RUDIN

CORA CAHAN

MARC & DIANE SPILKER

MARIAN HEISKELL & granddaughter SARAH

No one but the patrons of the New 42nd Street got to see the musician Stew perform the night before his musical, "Passing Strange," received seven Tony nominations.

That's because the patrons of the New 42nd Street were at the New 42nd Street gala on Monday night for a sampler of Broadway's current talent.

The program was a fitting tribute to the work of the New 42nd Street, which runs a rehearsal space used by many Broadway shows, and the New Victory Theater, an intimate jewel providing top-notch family-oriented fare. The New Victory also runs classroom programs and a youth corps that employs young adults.

The event also marked the dedication of Studio 6B in memory of Floria Lasky, famous for her role as Jerome Robbins's lawyer.